

Typhoon hardware bag contains 6 clevises and 5 pushrods, the followings is how to use them when assembly:

- please bent four threaded rods to "Z" shape, then screw them to four clevises and use them to connect the four servos on the wings.
- please cut the rest one threaded rod into halves, and put them on the carbon pushrods in the fuselage to connect the two clevises to the two servos in the fuselage.

